

Kevin Grant

Director Of Ballet (Company)

Kevin Grant is the director of Grant Training Program, and also the Director of Ballet for Tiffany & Co. Studio of Dance. Mr. Grant began his training through Weisser Park Elementary School, and continued on scholarship with Fort Wayne Ballet, Butler University, and Project Ballet. He supplemented his training with summers at the Rock School for Dance Education, Ballet Austin, and Milwaukee Ballet. Grant has been a guest dancer across the Midwest, along with touring Australia, New Zealand, and Malaysia.

From 2007-2017, he served as both a faculty member and Assistant Artistic Director at Project Ballet, formally the New American Youth Ballet. Students he helped train have been recipients of scholarships and gained entrance to School of American Ballet, San Francisco Ballet, Pacific Northwest Ballet, Houston Ballet, Miami City Ballet, among others. His former students are currently dancing or have danced with New York City Ballet, Ballet Austin, Charlotte Ballet, Nevada Ballet Theatre, Joffrey Ballet, Ballet 5:8, and more. Grant has also trained dancers who have competed successfully at nationwide competitions and conventions such as Youth America Grand Prix, NYCDA, & The Dance Awards. In addition to guest teaching he has attended the prestigious teachers workshops at CPYB and PNB while also sitting on the board of Audiences Unlimited.