

TIFFANY WINLING

Owner, Recreational/Company Instructor/Choreographer

I am Tiffany Winling and I am dancing my way into 28 years of being the owner, choreographer and a teacher of Tiffany & Co. Studio of Dance. I am very passionate about owning a studio that provides a well-rounded dance education while making the atmosphere comfortable. I would like the studio to feel like home to all those that walk through the T & Co. doors. I started studying dance at the age of 3. I have been educated by many wonderful teachers throughout the country. Jordan K. Bower, Bonnie Amburgey, James Franklin, Joe Tremaine, Franke Hatchett, Doug Caldwell and Marcia Lane to name a few. I have performed professionally with Pro Dance Teams and have performed in commercials and theatre shows. I have judged dance competitions around the country and I have choreographed for Dance Studio's, High School, College and Pro dance teams as well as theatre shows and commercials. I enjoy every genre of dance, every age, every level of ability, and bringing positive energy into every room. I am qualified to instruct dance in ballet, lyrical, contemporary, jazz, tap, hip hop and musical theatre.

I attend dance teacher conventions each year to stay current in the industry.

I strive to help each dancer achieve self-confidence.

Self-confidence is the key to success in any future endeavors a person may have. I have been lucky enough to watch many of my dancers move into professional dance positions and professional careers. In my free time I enjoy my lovely family, my husband Scott, my daughters West, Sophia and Tessa and my dog Baxter. They along with my studio family are my inspiration.
